ANNUAL REPORT

2014-2015
The Year at a Glance

This year's Student Government (SG) board commenced the term with one goal in mind: Unite the U. This idea was not a project that could be accomplished with a handful of individuals. Instead, it was and continues to be a movement propelled forward with the help of over 11,000 students in conjunction with campus administration, faculty and staff. We envisioned that if we can facilitate connections between groups who normally would not be given the opportunity to work together, then we could initiate a campus wide movement to unite our university. Through this undertaking, we have been able to strengthen the SG presence on our campus by listening to student suggestions and translating them into action.

Within SG, Executive at Large-Internal Daniela Lorenzo instilled these ideas through our monthly #SGAtTheRat events, our annual SG wide retreat, and numerous service days. Equipped to spread our message, SG members connected with campus life and addressed student concerns. Executive at Large-External Brittany Stephenson and the U-Outreach team planned campus programming events such as our bi-annual SG Awareness Week, an evening with David Coleman (“The Dating Doctor”) to promote self-confidence, Spring Kickoff, and study breaks.

Director of Communications Julie Earl kept students informed on our goals and initiatives through our #UMStudGov campaign. This rebranding made SG easily identifiable amongst the campus community. Speaker of the Senate Brianna Hathaway and Speaker Pro Tempore Ishtpreet Singh empowered Senators to better engage their constituencies. Events such as Find Your Senator and periodic tabling for suggestions demonstrated areas that needed improvement. SG alongside administration created a sexual assault PSA video, worked to install lights on gliders, implemented Smart Meals to foster relationships between students and professors, and passed bills to ensure students were informed about on-going campus construction projects.

Vice President William Herrera and the Freshman Leadership Council (FLC) successfully completed nearly all of their projects while developing the group's leadership skills. By conducting surveys and finding solutions, FLC implemented projects including shuttles to Wynwood Art Walk, commuter and resident programming, improved cycling safety resources, and Suite Week. Treasurer Dariel Fagundo brought back the use of TIPAC to help fund new SG pilot programs.
Executive Secretary Ryan Donahue took on extra responsibilities and set the groundwork for next year’s first ever Sustainability Scholarship Competition.

Chief of Staff Jesus Melendez led the Campus Liaison Council (CLC) in further strengthening relationships with administration while executing more projects than ever before. Jesus played a vital role in completing Sebastian’s Closet and free Metrorail passes for students enrolled in classes at the medical campus.

Elections Commission Chair Aqeel Khanani and his team revamped the SG Election Codes and increased voter turnout with 2,926 votes casted in the spring election. Elections Commission and Supreme Court Chief Justice Richey Fraga oversaw the elections violation process. During his tenure, Richey has never had to conduct violation trials, a feat few if any Chief Justices have been able to accomplish. Additionally, the Constitutional Review Committee was enacted this year and has been able to fix discrepancies within our own constitution.

Category 5 Chair Shelly Morse fought to take our spirit programming board to new heights working alongside the Athletics Department to continue new and old traditions on campus. Energy Conservation Organization (ECO) Chair Benjamin Slavin witnessed numerous green changes at the U while spreading conservation awareness to students.

I am proud to say that SG has been able to work together to generate positive change. Our success in great part derived from the relentless support of UM administration especially Vice President for Student Affairs Dr. Patricia Whitely. Furthermore, our advisors Dean Hall, Brandon Gross, and Heather Stevens have been instrumental in our achievements.

As we complete our term, I look forward to hearing the accomplishments of the “For U” ticket. I am confident that Brianna Hathaway, Ishtpreet Singh, and Robert Renfro will continue the movement and enhance student life at the University of Miami.

On behalf of Student Government, I would like to thank you for reading our Annual Report. We are honored and excited to be able to share with students and administrators all that SG has accomplished this year!

Our goal through this report is to answer the question we often hear: “what has Student Government done?” In the pages to follow, we hope to address that question and provide you with a detailed account of all that Student Government has been a part of this year to better our UM community. Through this report, we also hope to expand upon the annual reports that came before and provide written documentation that will aid those that come after us. It is our goal that future Student Government administrations utilize this as a way to expand upon initiatives and know the issues that have already been addressed as well as their successes, logistics and failures.

We hope you enjoy reading about all of the amazing things our organization has done in order to better the University of Miami student experience. We look forward to working with and hearing from you in the years to come! Our office, located in the Student Activity Center Suite 210, is always open to you and we encourage your participation and feedback.

Sincerely,

Daniela Lorenzo

Projects

Fresh Produce Pick-Up Option: The team worked with UM Dining to implement fresh produce options in the dining hall. They also explored having an external vendor to make the Farmers market a delivery site for the vendor’s produce where students can purchase and pick up packages.

Suite Week: The team collaborated with the U Outreach committee to plan and host an event in the SAC organization suites to unite student organizations and create awareness to students of their mission. Suite Week occurred on Thursday, February 19th, 2015.

Shuttles to Wynwood: The team worked with CLC and parking and transportation to implement a shuttle ride for all students to Wynwood on the first Saturday of every month during the Wynwood Art Walk. The shuttle was in service on April 11, 2015 for the first time.

Commuter and Resident Programming: The team planned and hosted an event that brought together commuter students and residents. The event was called the “UMazing Race”, which created teams comprised of both groups. At the conclusion of the event, dinner was served to all the participants. The event took place on April 4, 2015.

Improved Cycling Safety Resources: The team along with Facilities and UMPD resolved to improve cycling safety on campus and implement new bike racks in new parts of campus. The team continues to work with UMPD to implement new safety resources.

Stacks and Dining Hall Capacity Tracker: The team collaborated with the library, and dining, to implement capacity trackers that would inform students of wait times in the dining hall and the remaining spots open in the Stacks.

Common Hour: The team endeavored to bring back the common hour on campus. Common hour is an hour in the middle of the day in which no classes are scheduled. This allows student organizations to plan events and allows students to attend those events without missing class.

Food to U: This initiative aimed to bring an on-campus food delivery service to students. The food runners would be students who worked at any on campus restaurants and delivered food to students at any place on campus.

Canes Fan Database: This initiative sought to create an online database for students, alumni, and fans to interact and find ways to meet at away games. The goal is to unite Canes fans at any and every sporting event.

Food Option by Panhellenic: The team worked with dining to implement a food option near the Panhellenic building. In the fall, there will be a food truck positioned in that area to provide students who spend their time there.
Every year, the University of Miami Senate strives to best represent the voices of students. Through the leadership of Speaker, Brianna Hathaway, Speaker Pro Tempore, Ishtpreet Singh, and the Council of Chairs, Senate used different methods such as “Facebook”, suggestion boxes and tabling to reach out to the students. Furthermore, they helped sponsor several organizational events. Senate’s hope was to explore initiatives that best encompassed student needs so that senators could do their jobs as student representatives. Even though the year is coming to a close, their jobs will not. Senate will continue to pursue and complete those initiatives that they have started and start new ones as they are addressed. As representatives of the student body, Senate truly believes that they can help create the UM that students desire and deserve.

Supreme Court

The Supreme Court is the judicial branch of Student Government and is charged with upholding the provisions and powers of the Student Government Constitution and Statutes. Over the past year, Supreme Court has worked to clarify ambiguities in the Constitution by making sure that it is always up to date and free from error. It did this by enacting the Constitutional Revision Committee, which successfully cleaned up the documents. It has also been a resource to all Student Government members on procedural and statutory matters. Justices worked closely with the Elections Commission, to update the Elections Codes and oversaw one of the most successful elections in our organization’s history. Over the next year, the Supreme Court will continue to be a resource to all of SG and will work to find ways to improve its overall internal procedures. It is the Supreme Court’s hope that through the collaboration with all the other branches and agencies, it will help strengthen our organization and make it more efficient and transparent for the student body.

The duties of Elections Commission are to review and approve all SG applications and campaign materials, to enforce elections codes, to plan and organize elections events including Meet the Candidates and Executive Ticket debates, and to present all violations to Trial Court for hearings. In addition, the Elections Commission determines the polling times and locations, oversees polling sites, tabulates all votes, and announces elections results.

Summary

Fall Elections: Fall elections ran smoothly and efficiently. This led to the successful election of several new senators to their respective offices.

Spring Elections: This year, the Spring Student Government Elections was a huge success. There was an historic voting turnout, with a 50% increase from last spring’s turnout. In total, 2,926 students voted in this spring’s elections. In addition to tabling at the Breezeway, the Elections Commission also tabled in the Freshmen Dining Halls in order to increase freshmen involvement in the voting process. In terms of increasing candidate exposure, the Elections Commission held three Meet the Candidate events, which took place on the Hecht-Stanford Bridge, the Food Court, and the Rat. Both tickets running for the Executive Office took part in a debate on the Patio, which had a tremendous student turnout.

Energy Conservation Organization

The Energy and Conservation Organization (ECO) is the newest and greenest agency of Student Government. Our mission is to create a cultural change on campus in the realm of environmental stewardship as well as reduce the campus carbon footprint. Our goal is to develop the University of Miami to be as sustainable as possible, keeping in mind that the city of Miami is the second most vulnerable city in the world for sea level rise. This can be accomplished by enhancing the campus' green initiatives in food, transportation, energy, waste, recycling, etc. while building campus-wide efforts for sustainable behavioral practices in partnership with Green U and administration's branch of Sustainability.

Projects

1. Solar PV System: A 20kW solar array to be installed on the top of the food court facing the SAC scheduled to be completed before July 14th. Will offset up to 35% of the Food Court’s power consumption.

2. Lake Signage: This project is to place 6 permanent nature trail signs educating the student body about the nature of Lake Osceola.

3. Website (greenschoolalliance.com): A nationwide network of ECO-type organizations sharing ideas and proposals allowing ECO and UM to have a nationwide impact. Predicted to be complete by the end of 2015

4. Laundry Signage in Housing: Permanent signage to be hung in all of the laundry rooms on campus educating students about the advantage of using the "color" setting on the washer machines as well as cold water to save energy.

5. Campus wide Recycling Signage: ECO sponsored the brand new trash and recycling wraps that are now all over campus including in the SAC, UC, and Food Court.

6. Greek Standards: ECO’s events, including our Earth Week on April 13th-17th, are official Greek Standard events so that members can earn points by attending and participating in our events.
7. Shower heads overhaul: Wellness has agreed to change ALL of the women’s shower heads to the 1.8 gallons/min and will look to do so for the men’s locker room in the fall.

8. ReUse: ReUse is when members of the campus community can donate or take any goods that they would like. At the end of the day, all remaining goods are donated to Goodwill.

9. Earth Week: ECO has been working passionately to put on the best version of their signature event. An enormous amount of student orgs, on campus departments, as well as outside companies including Tesla, Coca Cola, and Waste Management are a part of this event.

10. Basketball Recycling Video: ECO worked with Athletics to create a 30 second recycling spot featuring the UM basketball team and Sebastian. The video played at the UNC game last weekend. ECO aims to get it sent out in an email blast from Athletics.

11. Sustainability Course for UMX: The course will educate every single new member of this campus about Single Stream recycling, ECO, and how UM and Green U are being sustainable with a quick and fun lesson.

12. Tree Campus USA: The application to certify UM as a Tree Campus USA campus was accepted for 2014! We are all very excited about this huge honor!
Campus Liaison Council

The 2014-2015 Campus Liaison Council (CLC) further exemplified the effectiveness of streamlining communication between campus departments and Student Government this year. In conjunction with the ideals of the “Unite the U” ticket, this year’s board fulfilled its main goal – collaborating more closely with other branches within Student Government in order to create a more unified organizational culture. By working closely with the Senate Branch, The UOutreach Committee, and the Freshman Leadership Council (FLC), the CLC was able to provide a level of connectedness within our organization that truly made for an outstanding year.
